Threat of Allies to Blockade All Greek Ports Unless Assured of Complete Liberty Brings Decision.

LARGE PART OF ARMY WILL BE DEMOBILIZED

Information Reaches Paris in Semi-Official Dispatch From Athens-Venizelos Meetings Are Held.

PARIS, Dec. 11. - Greece has a large part of the Hellenic army will be demobilized; withdrawal of Greek troops now in the region of Salonika will begin immediately.

This information came to Paris in semi-official dispatch from Athens today. The decision of the Greek government is said to have been reached after ministers of the entente powers had given notice that all Greek ports would be blockaded unless the allies were assured of complete liberty of military action.
